Tempo di Marcia

Little Mary's beau, said "I've got to ev'ry single day,

till ready

go,
say,
I must fight for Uncle Sam,
Mary's beau is oh, so brave—

Mary called loud— "Fare thee well my lovin' man!"
Chasing ev'ry Hun— He has taught them to be have—

"Ain't he nice and proud—shakes her head —"
And Mary answered "yes, and that's not all—"

CHORUS

"If he can fight like he can love, Oh, what a soldier boy he'll be.

If he's just half as good in a trench As he was in the park on a bench.

Then every Hun, had better run And find a great big linden tree,

I know he'll be a Hero over there I never saw him in a real good scrap,

Cause he's a bear in any morris chair But you're a gon-er when you're in his lap

Why, then it's good night Germany!" "If he can yi!"

The Kaiser Will “Sneer” It

N-O-I-T-I (Omit) Can’t Tell the Kaiser. But maybe that’s why it’s escaping the good old U. S. A. with its wonderful melody and inspiring words. Com. W. Meyer has put the real spirit of this into his playful military-meets-show-business burlesque, so that it will sing to the millions of every American when the Rhine is crossed and the guns are checked. Get it—it will get you.

Just Like Washington Crossed The Delaware

Sound banking will mean something in the coming days. It will mean security in a world of uncertainty and unrest. Just like Washington crossed the Delaware, sound banking will cross the seas. Get it—and you’ll get it.

I’m Sorry I Made You Cry

A Hit That Hits Home

Well, of course, it is a hit. It is a hit because it has grown rapidly. It has grown rapidly because it is a beautiful song that sums up the spirit of the times. It is not just a hit, but a real hit in the world of song. The biggest hit of the year will be “A Hit That Hits Home.” Get it and you’ll get it.
