MUSICAL GEMS FROM

LOUISIANA

THE WORLD'S FAIR
HISTORICAL EXTRAVAGANZA
AS PRODUCED AT
DELMAR GARDEN
ST. LOUIS, 1904

X DOWN ON THE GASCONADE, (Wm. John Hall) - 50¢
WITH BOW AND SPEAR, (Wm. John Hall) - 50¢

Featured with Tremendous Success by the Popular Baritone, W. A. G. STEWART.

BOOK BY
HIRAM W. HAYES

MUSIC BY
WM. JOHN HALL AND ANTON HEINDL

HUNLETH MUSIC CO.
514-516 LOCUST ST.
MOST COMPLETE MUSIC HOUSE IN ST. LOUIS
Down on the Gasconade.

Words by H. W. HAYES. Music by WILLIAM JOHN HALL.

Moderato.

1. Beneath Missouri's azure sky,
   One glorious summer night,
   I

2. Beside me stood the gondolier,
   I heard him softly sing,
   While

3. Float-ed o'er the broad lagoon,
   Beside the Cascade bright,
   My

4. From the tower far a-bove,
   The chimes did sweet-ly ring,
   O

Copyright, MCMIV, by Thieben Stierlin Music Co. St. Louis, Mo.

International Copyright Secured. heart went back to long ago, When as a youth I strayed, With what had I at such a time, To do with wasting care, My pret-ty little Polly Gray, Down on the Gas-co-nade, heart went back to long ago, To days so sweet and fair.

Slowly.

Down on the Gas-co-nade, 'Neath moon-lit skies I 785-3.

strayed,       With Polly dear, my sweetheart here, A fair Missouri maid,       Down on the Gasconade,

'Neath moon-lit skies I strayed,       With Polly dear, my sweetheart here, Down on the Gasconade.
Be Sure to Hear this Played Over

HIKE TO THE PIKE

INTERMEZZO

EDW. B. CLAYPOOLE

Copyright MCMIV by Thiebes-Stierlin. Music Co. St. Louis Mo. International copyright secured