Dear Sir:

In a letter from Dillon S. Meyer, Director of the War Relocation Authority which reached us on June 21, 1943, he enclosed a "Master List of Schools Having Classified Naval Activities Making It Undesirable That Japanese Attend." Your institution is on this list.

The letter states that he is "protesting the decision of the Navy authorities in proscribing some of the most favorable institutions, but until this appeal can be heard, it is not advisable to relocate additional students in the schools listed." Mr. Meyer adds that "Commander Wharton of the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations has informed us that official notification of the Navy Department's decision will be furnished to the affected institutions at a future date, but advises that such notice from you (this Council) to the schools would also be appropriate."

From the above, it does not appear that any college will necessarily be required to exclude students already "relocated". We understand "relocated" to include those already enrolled, accepted for enrollment or under consideration by the college authorities on June 18, 1943.

Cordially yours,

C. V. Hibbard, Director
